The request made is in my opinion - deserving of favorable consideration. As the vacancy is a permanent one & no one has yet been appointed to it permanently it seems to me that it will be in the interest of work - and fair to the officer concerned - if the officer in charge is sanctioned as "specialist"

Subject:-

Question of appointing Mr. B. Dasappa as Officiating Inspector General of Education and entrusting the duties of the Deputy Inspector General to Mr. B. Tirumalachar.

Reference is invited to my Submission Note dated the 5th July 1921 requesting His Highness' sanction to place Mr. Dasappa, Deputy Inspector General of Education, in charge of the duties of the Inspector General of Education in place of Mr. G.R.Reddy retired. Mr. B. Dasappa now represents that in the interests of office work, it is necessary - that he should be appointed officiating Inspector General, so that there might be some one to look after the duties of his office as Deputy Inspector General of Education and that this arrangement will enable him to devote more attention to the larger and more important questions connected with the Department which have been referred to him for immediate report. He proposes that Mr. Tirumalachar, his Office Assistant, might be placed in charge of the duties of Deputy Inspector General in addition to his own.

Office Notes
The question was considered at the meeting of the Council held on the 4th August 1921, and the Council are of opinion that 'pending permanent arrangements, Mr. Dasappa may be appointed to officiate as Inspector General of Education and Mr. Tirumalachar may be put in charge of the duties of the Deputy Inspector General in addition to his own'

The opinion of the Council may be graciously approved.

Tamm*
With reference to Government Order No.44-5/C.B.3-21 dated 2nd July 1921 permitting Mr.C.R. Reddy to retire from service and placing me in charge of the duties of the office of the Inspector General of Education as a temporary measure I beg to point out that it is not clear whether I am placed in charge of the current duties of the office or appointed as Officiating Inspector General. In the interests of office work I respectfully beg that I may be kindly appointed as Officiating Inspector General of Education with effect from the date on which I took over charge, viz., the afternoon of 9th July 1921, Mr. B. Tirumalachar being kindly placed in charge of the duties of the Deputy Inspector General in addition to his own and authorised to exercise all the powers of the Deputy Inspector General including the signing of bills requiring the signature of or generally signed by the Deputy Inspector General. The latter part of the arrangements now proposed was kindly sanctioned in

^{D. 145}
In continuation of my D.O. letter No. H.C. 3 of 21-22 dated the 13th instant, I have the honour to submit respectfully for the kind and favourable consideration of Government that it would enable me to devote more attention to the larger and more important questions connected with the Department if, as requested in the letter referred to above, Mr. Tirumalachar, Personal Assistant to the Inspector General of Education, is placed in charge of the duties of the Deputy Inspector General of Education, in addition to his own duties. Among such questions requiring immediate attention on my part are the following which have been referred to me for immediate report in the course of the last fortnight:--

- (1) The chapters on Public Instruction in the Revised Mysore Gazetteer;
- (2) The establishment of A.V. schools at Taluk headquarters;
- (3) The equipment of the new Science Hall of the Collegiate High School, Bangalore, with furniture and apparatus;
- (4) The granting of facilities for the admission of private candidates to the Lower Secondary Examination;
- (5) The opening of more Special English classes in A.V. schools;
- (6) Revised rules of the Elementary Education Act,
- (7) Representative Assembly subject regarding the construction of a separate building for the Government A.H. School, Channapatna, and the appointment of a Mahomedan graduate as Headmaster;

- (8) The construction of a building for the A.H. School, Bangalore;
- (9) Brief Report on the working of the Education Department for 1920-21 for the Dewan's Address for the Dasara session of the Representative Assembly of October 1921;
- (10) Revision of the Practical Instruction scheme;
- (11) Organization and equipment of Primary and A.V. schools under the Government Orders on the Educational Memorandum, etc.

etc.,

I beg to add that as stated in my D.O. letter, Mr. Narumalachar was placed in charge of the duties of the Deputy Inspector General in accordance with Government Order No. 9621-2/Edn. dated 8th April 1921 in connection with my recent absence on combined leave and the arrangement was found to work satisfactorily.

I have the honor to be,

Sir.

Your most obedient servant,

B. Dasappa

Deputy Inspector General
In charge, Office of the Inspector General of Education in Mysore.
